

Pastor Sinada Banks

Pastor Sinada Banks naïve of Houston, Texas. A graduate with honors from Abraham Lincoln High. A veteran of the U.S. Navy during the Vietnam conflict. After being honorably discharge from service, Sinada enrolled at San Diego City College where he completed course study in two disciplines Electronic Technology and Business Administration, receiving degrees in both.

In July 1974 Sinada began his Postal Career at the Midway Postal Facility in San Diego, Ca. a career that lasted 38years.

In 1979 ordained an Elder under Bishop George D. McKinney Ph. D., and serving as Youth pastor and choir director, Pastor Banks received Bible training at the Berean Bible School and Studies in Marriage and Family Counseling from National University, San Diego.

In 1996 met and married Missionary Lawoyinna R. Black a naïve of St Louise, Missouri and a member of St. Stephens COGIC. Moved to Oklahoma in 1998 as a result of a promotion within the U.S. Postal Service. Became a member of the Open Door COGIC, Pastored by the late Bishop F. D. Lawson Jr. Served as an associate minister and aided the Pastor as assigned.

In the summer of 2000 entered a course of study in Organizational Management at the Masters level at Phoenix University under the Administration of Bishop Malcolm W. Coby, Ph. D. Received the following appointments:

- Commissioner of Finance Oklahoma South East Jurisdiction - 2004
- Pastor of the Garden of Grace Community COGIC – 2008
- Superintendent of the Page Memorial District - 2011
- Administrative Assistant - 2012
- Honorary Doctorate Degree 2015