

Larry Colbert

An award-winning author, founder and president of The Colbert House LLC and president of the Garden of Grace Community foundation, Larry Colbert has written or edited novels, children's scripts and various historical, technical, educational and promotional material. As course developer, he produced approximately 600 college and high school credit and non credit distance education courses.

The Colbert House LLC publishes faith lived Christian books and offers book-publishing services to aspiring authors. The company also publishes the Community of Forgiveness GLOBAL page on Facebook and WordPress.

Colbert has authored the Christian living book 33 Truths You Should Know about Jesus and the Cross, a World War II novel Songs of Zion and The Cup of Racial Reconciliation.

A former Meals on Wheels Board of Directors member, Colbert was awarded an Oklahoma Press Association award and the OU College of Continuing Education Distinguished Service Award.

An ordained minister, Colbert has shared the message of God's solution to racial strife for more than a decade and organized and conducted four Racial Reconciliation Summits. As well, he developed and conducts the Publish Your Book Short Course.

Colbert earned bachelors' degrees in journalism and psychology from the University of Central Oklahoma and a master's in professional writing from the University of Oklahoma. More information is available about Colbert and The Colbert House LLC at www.colberthouse.net.