

First Lady Lawoynna Banks

First Lady Lawoynna Banks born in St. Louis, Missouri where she attended church with her parents. At the age of six she was baptized in the Mississippi river by Bishop C.H. Mason the founder of the Church of God in Christ.

She attended Beaumont High and graduated in 1975. After graduation she attended New Mexico University.

In 1979 Lawoynna moved to San Diego, CA where she joined St. Stephens COGIC. She was licensed as an evangelist by Mother E. Nash second national Supervisor to Willie Mae Rivers.

Lawoynna continued her education at Pacific College School of nursing for CNA and medical assistant, received addition training at San Diego City College for EMT and Laboratory technology.

In 1996 met and married Sinada Banks.